LIST 3 Evidence of current residential address
- Australian driver licence (or learner permit)
- Utility account (including gas, water, electricity, mobile or home phone)
- Rates notice
- Centrelink concession card (Pension Concession Card, Health Care Card or Commonwealth Seniors Health Card)
- Bank statement (including passbook, credit, savings or cheque accounts)
- Current lease or tenancy agreement
- Superannuation fund statement

All applicants please note:
- All documents must be current
- If you cannot provide an identity document from List 1 you must provide two from List 2 and one from List 3
- Your List 3 document must show your current residential address
- A List 1 document can also be used as a List 3 document if it shows your current residential address
- Bank statements, utility accounts, rates notices or superannuation fund statements must have been issued within the last 12 months
- If you submit printed online bank, superannuation or utility statements they must contain an official company letterhead or be stamped and approved by the bank, superannuation fund or utility company.

Under 18 years?
If you are unable to submit all three identity documents, a List 2 document can be a:
- Medicare card showing your name
- Current school report card or exam certificate.

Certifying and submitting your documents

How to certify your identity documents
1. Make a photocopy of each identity document. Make sure the document from List 3 shows the current residential address.
2. Take your original documents and the photocopies to a police station and ask either a sworn member of police or a Justice of the Peace located in the station to certify them.

Submitting in person?
If you are attending the Registry’s Customer Service Centre, bring the original identity documents with you. If you are submitting your application at selected Justice Service Centres (JSC), bring both the original documents and photocopies of the original documents so they can be certified. To find your nearest JSC, visit bdm.vic.gov.au/jsc

Submitting by mail?
You must mail certified photocopies of each identity document.

Note
- Do not send original identity documents by mail. These can only be used if you submit your identity documents in person.
- The Registry does not accept identity documents sent via fax or email.
- The Registry does not accept photocopies of identity documents that are expired, uncertified or certified incorrectly.
- Failure to correctly submit your proof of identity documents will delay your application.

Applying from outside Victoria?
If you are applying from other Australian states or territories you may have photocopies of your identity documents certified by a sworn member of police or a Justice of the Peace.

Applying from outside Australia?
If you live outside Australia, you can provide overseas equivalents to Australian identity documents, such as a foreign driver licence.

You may have photocopies of your identity documents certified by an Australian consulate or embassy official, a Notary Public or a local member of police.

If any identity documents are not written in English, you must also provide a certified translation. The Registry will only accept translations by an accredited translator.

If you are unable to meet these requirements please contact the Registry via bdm.vic.gov.au

FAQs

I was married in Victoria. Can I use the certificate we received on our wedding day as proof of my new family name (surname) to update my passport or driver licence?

No. You will usually need a standard marriage certificate issued by the Registry as proof of marriage and your new family name.

I was married overseas. Can I use my marriage certificate as proof of my new family name (surname)?

To prove you have a new family name you may need to apply to register a name change with the Victorian Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages.

I was married outside of Victoria. Which certificate do I need as proof of my new family name (surname) to update my passport or driver licence?

You will usually need a standard marriage certificate issued by the registry of the state or territory you were married in.

Note: It is best to check the requirements of the authority requesting your identification documents before you order a certificate.

In line with the Privacy and Data Protection Act 2014, the Registry is collecting information in this form to determine your eligibility to obtain the requested certificate and to prevent fraud. A copy of the Registry’s Privacy Policy is available at bdm.vic.gov.au

If you do not provide all of the information requested, particularly that relating to the reason the document is required and your relationship to the registered person, then you may not be provided with a certified copy of the certificate.
